The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 10, to Tuesday November 13, 1753.

Conſtantinople, September 26.

THE Grand Seignor, who at the Beginning of this Month was greatly indiſpoſed, is now much better. 'Tis ſaid his Sublime Highneſs, after the Example of ſeveral European Powers, is determined, for the Future, to have Part of the Ottoman Troops encamped and exerciſed every Year, in order to their being the better enabled to act upon any Emergency. Ali Effendi, who came here ſome Time ago, to execute a Commiſſion from the Dey and Regency of Tripoli, is ſet out from hence on his Return Home, with very conſiderable Preſents from the Grand Seignor and Grand Vizier.

Moſcow, Oct. 10. Baron Pretlak, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties to this Court, who was on the Point of ſetting out from hence on his Return to Vienna, is ſuddenly taken ill. The prudent Precautions taken here to prevent Fires, have had ſo good Effect, that no Accident of that Kind has happened for ſome Months paſt, except a ſmall Fire laſt Week, which burnt down about five or ſix Houſes.

Madrid, Oct. 16. On Wedneſday laſt the Court ſet out for the Eſcurial, where they propoſe to ſtay ſome Time. The King has conferred the Poſt of Regent of the Audience of Arragon, on Don Jean Martin de Gamio, heretofore Regent of that of Majorca. Don Jean Chriſoſtome de Salamanca is nominated Corregidor of Logrono in Old Caſtile, for three Years; and the Poſt of Fiſcal Criminal of the Audience of Arragon, is conferred on Don Joſeph Fernandez de Lima.

Florence, Oct. 19. In Conſequence of the new Military Plan, the four Militia Regiments have been diſbanded, out of which a Body of them has been formed into Companies for the Uſe, and at the ſole Diſpoſition of the Magiſtrates of the Health Office, to be poſted on the Confines of this State in Caſe of any Peſtilential Sickneſs, or other Motives that may engage them to take any Precautions for the Publick Health. At the ſame Time the Regiment of Guards paſſed in Review, when the Emperor's Pleaſure, both with Regard to its being no longer on the Foot of a Regiment of Guards, as well as the Reduction of the common Men's Pay half a Sol per Day was notified to them, leaving the Choice to the latter to accept of a ſmall Sum of Money, and to enter into a new Engagement, or to leave the Service; on which Occaſion a few only have quitted. They are to change their Uniform from Red to White, faced with Red, as the Second and Third Regiments, in which there are only ſmall Diſtinctions. The Regency has received Notice from Leghorne of the Arrival there of the Tuneſine Veſſel with 30 Moors on Board, which about two Years ago was ſeized by the Neapolitan Gallies, when at Anchor under a ſmall Fort on the Iſland del Giglio belonging to Tuſcany, which Capture occaſion'd a long Conteſt between the Court of Naples and this State, but has been ended by his Sicilian Majeſty's ſending the Veſſel and Men to Leghorne, at the Diſpoſition of his Miniſter here, who is to give them up to this Government as a Preſent, without making Mention of his Court; and on the 17th the Marquis Ginori, Governor of Leghorn, ſet out from hence, by Order of the Regency, on Return to his Government, with Directions to receive the ſaid Veſſel and Men, and to convey them, on the Part of the Regency, to the Bey of Tunis.

Turin, Oct. 24. Her moſt Serene Highneſs the Princeſs of Carignan, who was in the eighth Month of her Pregnancy, fell ſo dangerouſly ill the Beginning of laſt Week, that her Phyſicians loſt all Hopes of her Recovery. Her Malady was attended with Convulſions, which at laſt left her, without any Symptoms of Life, for many Hours. She had before received all the Sacraments, and the Phyſicians being conſulted, they were actually preparing for what is called the Cæſarean Operation, to ſave the Child, when when, by a ſeaſonable Bleeding in the Foot, ſhe revived, and on Sunday laſt was delivered of a Prince, who continues in perfect Health, but the Princeſs is not yet deemed altogether out of Danger. All the Royal Family have ſhewn a very ſenſible Concern on this Occaſion; the King of Sardinia, and the Duke of Savoy, having never fail'd a Day, during the Princeſſes Illneſs, to viſit her Highneſs; and his Sardinian Majeſty has even join'd in all the Offices of Devotion, and aſſiſted at all ſolemn Functions performed in ſuch Caſes of Extremity.

Munich, Oct. 25. The Elector of Bavaria our Sovereign propoſes taking a Tour, the Beginning of next Month, to Ingoldſtadt, in which he will be accompanied by the Electreſs, and by Duke Clement of Bavaria.

Copenhagen, Oct. 27. The King has cauſed an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, dated the 22d Inſtant, prohibiting all Commerce and Correſpondence whatſoever, between the Subjects of this Kingdom and thoſe of Spain.

Brunſwick, Oct. 27. The Hereditary Prince of Anſpach, who was here about a Fortnight, ſet out on Monday laſt for Caſſel, in order to ſpend ſome Time at that Court.

Vienna, Oct. 27. Yeſterday an extraordinary Council was held at Court, upon ſome late Diſpatches brought by a Courier from Italy. The Count de Choteck is gone from hence, by her Imperial Majeſty's Order, for Bohemia, in order to view the ſeveral new Manufactures that are carrying on in that Kingdom.

Francfort, Oct. 30. We are informed by Advices from Swabia, and the Briſgaw, that the Vintage this Year have proved very plentiful and fine in thoſe Countries. Count Loos, who reſided for ſeveral Years at the Court of France, in Quality of Ambaſſador from the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, paſſed through this City laſt Week on his Return from Paris to Dreſden.

Berlin, Oct. 30. The King, who came here from Potsdam the 26th of laſt Month, ſet out the next Morning on a Tour to Sileſia, accompanied by the Majors General Boddenbroeck and Hautcharmoi. On Saturday the 20th Inſtant died here, of a malignant Fever, Count Arnim, Counſellor of State and of War, Vice Preſident of the Chambers of Domains and Finances, Poſt-Maſter-General of this Electorate, and Knight of the Order of the Black Eagle, and of that of St. John; and on Tueſday laſt his Corpſe was carried from hence, with great Funeral Pomp, to Boitzenbourg, in order to be interred with his Anceſtors.

Liege, Nov. 2. An Ordonnance is publiſhed here, prohibiting the Exportation or ſending of Hops, for the preſent, out of this Principality, on Pain of forfeiting the ſame, that Commodity being exceſſive dear, on Account of the great Quantities that have been lately ſold to the Subjects of the neighbouring States.

Paris, Nov. 4. The Affairs of the Parliament are in the ſame Situation they have been for ſome Time, and the Talk of the Members being recalled, ſeems almoſt at an End. The King has appointed the Count de Graville, to be Governor of the Province of Rouſſilon; and M. de Bon, firſt Preſident of the Court of Aides of Montpelier, is appointed Intendant of the ſaid Province.

Hague, Nov. 6. Laſt Friday, being the Princeſs Governante's Birth-Day, who then entered into the 45th Year of her Age, her Royal Highneſs was complimented thereupon by the Members of the Government, the Foreign Miniſters, and the principal Nobility; and on Saturday, being the Feaſt of St. Hubert, the young Prince Stadtholder went a Hunting, for the firſt Time, in the Neighbourhood of Voorbourg. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante has appointed M. Erpel to be Captain of a Company in the Regiment of the Prince of Bade-Baden. The Field Marſhal Duke of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle, who has been for ſome Time at his Government of Bois-le-Duc, is returned from thence, and has been in Conference with the Preſident of the Aſſembly of the States General, and divers other Lords of the Regency. They write from Hoorn in North-Holland, that M. Verſchuur, Burgomaſter of that City, died there laſt Week, greatly regretted.
